

ELAINE DICKSON, CFE

Elaine Dickson is Owner and CEO of Mavenly Consultants, LLC, a national consulting firm providing accounting, finance and strategy services to growth-oriented businesses. She is the principal in client negotiations and oversees the strategic direction of the business.

Prior to her current role, Elaine served as President of E2 Global Consultants, a finance and accounting firm providing consulting to senior level accounting and finance leaders. She also held several management positions in banking and investment institutions.

Elaine graduated from the University of Massachusetts-Boston with a degree in Management, concentration in Accounting, obtained a Master of Business Administration from Bentley University and a Master of Science in Journalism from Boston University. Additionally, Ms. Dickson is a Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE) and a Certified DEI Consultant. She also holds Certificates in Regulatory Compliance from University of Pennsylvania-Coursera, Change Management and Governance from Macquarie University-Coursera and Forensic Accounting and Fraud Examination from West Virginia University-Coursera.

In addition to Mavenly, Elaine is also the Co-Founder of Reading Owls International, a grassroots organization working to improve educational outcomes and advance equity in education for Jamaican students. Reading Owls imagines a world in which every child has the resources to help him or her succeed. Other current roles include serving on the Cumberland School Department's Racial Equity Task Force and the Governance Committee of the Moses Brown School. Most recently, she served as Clerk (Chair) of the Moses Brown Admissions and Enrollment committee and as a member of their Executive Committee and Board of Trustees (2013-2019).

elaine@mavenlyconsultants.com
(401) 405-4094

@mavenlyconsult

www.mavenlyconsultants.com